Boost for the American Legion

Some statesman said, "Republics are ungrateful," let this not be true of ours. Our soldier and sailor boys were sent overseas to battle for all of us, and we gave them most patriotic farewells and burned lots of red fire on their return, but are we forgetting them now? The boys have organized into a grand patriotic society, non-partisan, non-sectarian and simply and patriotically American, and ask the people to assist them in getting on their feet. Many parts of the city have organizations from 500 to a 1000, while the Englewood Camp does not exceed a hundred, and little enthusiasm is shown them. We should all get back of the Legion and boost; help them out in any way they ask, and show our appreciation of all they did for us. Englewood Post meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month in G. A. R. Hall, 6236 Princeton Ave., and every soldier and sailor in the community should be a member and every good citizen should stand ready to help them get together. Now all together, boost.

What Will We Do With Them?

If it is a long haired bewhiskered Russian, or a stilletto and bomb bearing Italian that preaches nhilism and anarchy, we may deport them after a seige of litigation, but what are we to do with so-called Americans, many born and bred for generations in our favored land, who spout the worst sort of anarchy and radicalism not only from soap boxes but from university chairs? These are the most dangerous as their word is gospel for the foreigner, who banks on what they say as "they are real educated Americans, and they know" as is often quoted by the misguided and ignorant emigrant. If these dangerous agitators are allowed to continue a few years more, they will pollute the college as well as the shop. Some of our own high schools already have the worst kind of "reds" in embryo, as was shown a few weeks ago, and one would be surprised to know the source from which this foul stream comes. We may make a foreigner behave or deport him, but what will we do with the dangerous notoriety seeking professor, or half educated orator who easily finds an audience at any time. If the police arrest him, he is realeased by habaes corpus in an hour and is thereafter a hero in the eyes of the proletariat and gains the notoriety he craves. If all were jailed and given a hard labor sentence, it would probably put an end to their mouthings, but can it be done with present laws?

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security, which makes farm mortgages so desirable For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

U. S. ADVISES FARMERS BEST WAY TO INVEST

Transfer of Liberty Bonds Held by Banks Urged as Aid to Cut H. C. L.

Through the State Agricultural colleges of the Seventh district, as well as the other districts of the country, the savings division of the treasury department is starting a campaign to promote savings and investment in government securities, especially for the benefit of the farmer. In a letter to the State Agricultural colleges Benjamin R. Andrews, vice director of the savings division, said in part:

"The treasury department is offering Thrift and War Savings stamps, $100 and $1,000 Treasury Savings certificates (War Savings stamps in larger denominations), and Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness. It is also urging the transfer to private investors of the Liberty bonds still held by banks, which, as the federal reserve board has pointed out, by reducing the inflated credit situation will be one effective factor for checking rising prices.

"The farmers of the country took their full share in the war loans and for the first time became generally investors in securities. The problem arises: Can they to their own advantage continue to invest money in securities, and if so, what form shall the investment take? A leading rural economist recently pointed out that the farmers could not do better than place their surplus funds in Liberty bonds. From many quarters comes the warning against the danger in rising land prices which are in part due to the investment of the farmer's surplus in land which he does not intend to cultivate, but to rent or sell again.

"The government is interested in promoting the holding of Liberty bonds, in preventing fraudulent practices by Liberty bond manipulators, and in continuing the flow of money into Liberty bonds and other government securities."

Following are the chief points the treasury department wishes to be brought to the attention of people in rural districts:

Possible investments for farmer: (a) Re-investment in his own farming desirable as long as more capital can be profitably employed; (b) land mortgages—safe but not readily convertible to cash or convenient as collateral for temporary bank loans; (c) personal notes—risky; (d) shares of stock—speculative and risky, farmer not in position to have special knowledge; (e) government securities, absolutely safe as to principal and interest—no question as to prior claims, always marketable or redeemable.

Government securities now available: $5 War Savings stamps and $100 and $1,000 Treasury Savings certificates, maturing January 1, 1924, redeemable on demand sooner, paying 4 per cent compound interest; Treasury Certificates of Indebtedness, $500 up, running for a few months with interest at 4¼ per cent and 4½ per cent; Liberty bonds and Victory notes, $50 up, purchasable in open market through local banks. Characteristics of these different securities—bonds especially desirable as collateral for temporary loans at banks.

Effect of government investment: (a) Increasing saving fund of the country; the dollar put into government securities releases a banking dollar; (b) expansion of business and trade; effect on foreign trade especially important to farmer as the extension of credits abroad is the sole way of making possible the sale of farm products abroad; increasing capital available for agriculture; (c) high cost of living situation, since increased production and saving are the two fundamental cures for rising prices and investment in government securities provides both; (d) rural land speculation craze—aided by farmer who puts his surplus into farm lands for leasing or sale; checked by government investment; effect of speculation on future farming.

"Holding your government securities is good citizenship."—Why? The government is still borrowing funds.

Farmer now a mark for fraudulent stock operators, Liberty bond scalpers. How check fraud?

WORK, SAVE, SUCCEED (W. S. S.)

VIRGIN ISLANDS SET EXAMPLE.

Uncle Sam's newest possession, the Virgin Islands, has taken most rapidly to American ideals, according to information received by the Savings Division of the Treasury Department. The small population of the islands consists largely of the foreign-born, yet nearly $2,500 worth of War Savings stamps has been sold there this year, the per capita purchases comparing most favorably with those of any of the states of the Union.

The purchases for the islands up to the end of August this year averaged $17.25 for each square mile of the territory purchased from Denmark in 1916. The sales of the stamps were made through the post offices of the islands.

Emil Johnson is a very thorough man, and had scarcely gotten over the extraction of a tooth by a photographer than he has a toe nail on the bum, probably knocked out by his barber. Just the same he continues to sell good clothing at 6222 Halsted St. and is (if possible), a bit more decent in his prices.

Last Tuesday evening the Fellowship Bible Class Club of the Marquette Road Baptist Church, held its annual banquet and business meeting at the church. Over forty persons partook of the sumptuous repast served by a group of the ladies. Mr. H. V. Brown was elected president for the ensuing year, and retiring-president W. A. Coad was chosen secretary-treasurer for the same term. The customary reports were presented, after which a capital program of orchestral and vocal music, toasts, etc., was rendered, the retiring president officiating as toastmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Goldberger of 4854 N. Rockwell St., announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Selma Eveleth to Mr. Louis Eugene Sandack, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Sandack, of 6357 Sangamon St. "Louey" is one of the most popular young men of Englewood and a prime good fellow hence we join in congratulations and best wishes.

Three safe burglars undertook to blow the Linden theatre safe Sunday night but the watchman, Charley Eckerman, snapped on the lights and began shooting, he was assisted by officer McCambridge and between them they wounded and captured one, Stanley McParland, of 6204 Halsted (so he claimed). There was $2,000 in the safe that the watchman saved. Good boy.

Edward Busany and his barkeeper, W. G. Doherty, of 815 69th St., met up with a would be holdup man Sunday night that tried to hold up the place, and after compelling him to submit to a wallup in the jaw from the husky Doherty he was taken to the Englewood police station and he probably will be kept warm and comfortable in the county jail and enjoy his Christmas dinner there, while better me go hungry and cold.

A patriotic vaudéville entertainment and dance will be given by "Our Lady of Solace" branch of the Holy Name Society at the Knights of Columbus Club House, 6323 Harvard Ave., Friday evening, the 12th. All returned soldiers and sailors of the parish will be the guests.

Officer Michael Duffy, who lived at 5812 Aberdeen St., was shot in the "Merry Widow's Saloon" at 6135 Halsted St., Friday night, while responding to a call, died at St. Bernard's Hospital, Sunday. He leaves a wife and four children, and had been on the police force 14 years. He was a good officer and stood high with the superiors and the people who knew him. It seems unnecessary to say, no trace has been found of the asssasin, who is believed to be named Rogers or Kane and was a railroad man living in a shack along the tracks of the Pan Handle.

Holy Name Society of Chicago

Our Lady of Solace Parish Branch will give an entertainment and dance on Friday, December 12th, at 8:15 p. m. in Englewood Council K. of C. Hall, 63rd and Harvard Ave., to welcome home the returned soldiers, sailors and marines of Our Lady of Solace Church. An excellent program of entertainment lasting until about 9:30 p. m. has been arranged and the dance will follow immediately after the entertainment. A good time is assured all those who will attend. Tickets may be obtained at the Parochial residence, 6214 S. Sangamon St., from Secretary J. A. Bateman, 5934 Elizabeth St., or from any member of the Holy Name Society of the Parish.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

The High school boy very early in life
Falls in love with each girl that he sees,
In fact, he no sooner gets down on his hip,
Than he's apt to get down on his knees.

The farmer resembles his hens in one thing—they both delight in full crops.

Casey says, "Ut isn't awlways the coat thot meks the mon, oftentoimes ut do be the padding in ut."

We can have that Englewood park if we all get after it hard enough.

So long as the wards are not to be divided, it might be a good idea to let the aldermen be as they are—what?

With Christmas only three weeks away, one cannot almost hear old Santa's aeroplane buzzing in the near distance.

In speaking of a local tightwad Casey says, "Shure he luves his muney fer the mony things he don't hov to spind ut fer."

The girl that didn't dance with the Prince of Wales while on his tour, is a very lonely critter, they are nearly as numerous as Mayflower descendants.

If any of my wealthy friends are still in doubt about my Christmas present, they might cancel the order for an automobile and make it a ton of coal.

The eloquent orator was winding up in a blaze of glory and shouted, "Yes, gentlemen, I have bravely stood with flying shells scattered all about me and—" Here Casey butted in with "He musth hov warked opening eyesters in a restaurant," and the effect was lost.

"You must be an awful strong man, Mr. Brown," said the ten-year-old son at the home Mr. Brown was spending the evening. "Why, what makes you think that, Willie?" asked the proud visitor. "Because papa told mamma last night that he saw you carrying an awful big load home last Saturday night."

The stranger had admired the handsome building, and the old resident said, "Yes, it is a fine structure, but the owner built it out of the blood, the aches, and groans of his fellowmen: out of the grief of crying children and the woes of wailing women." Naturally the stranger asked: "He is a rum seller no doubt?" And the wise old guy who lived hereabouts answered: "Certainly not, he is dentist."

"Where are you going, Willie?" asked the fond mamma. "I'm going down to the basement to watch papa fix the furnace pipes," said Willie at which the wise mamma said," "No you are not, Willie; you hear enough bad language in the stree without hearing what your papa say when he gets at that furnace job."

The bright young man made th sort of a proposal: "My dear, I would like to borrow you from you parents for about seventy years o so," and the equally smart young lady simply murmured: "Oh, you dear, there really are times whe one wants to be a loan," and if you listen you may hear the wedding bells a-ringing.

It was some years ago at the old Avenue Theatre and just before the curtain was to be rung up, the stage director called out to Manager Marvin: "We can't go on, the orches ra is all drunk," but the plucky manager was not to be disconcerted an he promptly rejoined, "That's al right, Sam, put 'em in the box, you know we advertised a full orchestra."

"The Germans exaggerate thei submarine murders as the old settlers exaggerated their fog yarns." The speaker was a champion flyer of the Hempstead aviatior camp. He went on: "An old settler took a chew and said: 'The wors fog I ever seen was back in '74. I remember I had to go to the hen house that night, and the fog was so blame thick I had to get the three hired men to push me through it.' 'I remember that there '74 fog well.' said the second old settler. 'but it wan't nothin' to the '63 one. That was a fog! Solid? Why, us boys sat on the fence back of the distillery all that day makin' fog balls an' heavin' 'em at the people that went by.'"

A Polish couple who had emigrated to the United States came before a justice of the peace to be married. The young man handed him the marriage license and the pair stood up before him. "Join hands," said the justice of the peace. They did so and the justice looked at the document, which authorized him to unite in matrimony Zatharewiez Perezynski and Leokowarda Jeulinski. "Ahem!" he said. "Zatha—h'm—h'm—ski, do you take this woman," etc. "Yes, sir," responded the young man. "Leo—h'm—ah—ski, do you take this man to be," etc. "Yes, sir," replied the woman. "Then I pronounce you man and wife," said the justice, glad to find something he could pronounce, "and I heartily congratulate you on reducing these two names into one!"

One of the objects of this auxiliary is to help the Knights of Columbus in their many undertakings. They have made a name for themselves by their good deeds and with the help of all Catholic women banded together would be able to accomplish a great deal more.

Soldier Boys and Sailor Boys

Who love to sing, will find just the opportunity for musical training and musical expression they need in the Civic Music Chorus, that meets weekly on Monday nights at Hamilton Park, under the direction of John Norton, choirmaster, at St. James Episcopal Church, on the North Side. Stanley Seder, assistant organist of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, is the accompanist.

Mr. Norton conducted a military band from Great Lakes Station throughout the war, and if there are any "boys" in our community who were members of that organization, they are cordially invited to be present at rehearsal next Monday evening, to renew their acquaintance with that popular leader and enjoy the social half-hour following "practice." Membership is still open to singers of all parts.

Too Late for Publication

There is no use sending us "copy" later than Wednesday afternoon, as we cannot possibly publish it. Every week we are compelled to make this announcement, but some people seem to think we can accept "copy" up to Thursday and send it to us, and if not available for the next issue we must consign it to the waste paper basket.

AUBURN PARK FEDERATED CHURCH NEWS

Dr. R. K. Breed of the Chicago City Missionary Society will preach at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Enrollment 170. Graded lessons from beginners to adults. Fifty in the Primary room. Christmas program includes a cantata and entertainment for which elaborate plans are being made. The Parent-Teachers Club met last Monday evening. It was found to be so successful and to fill such a need in the busy lives of the mothers that another meeting is planned on January 6th. Parents should know the Sunday school teachers of their children as well as their day teachers. Rev. L. H. Sandhusen has resigned and preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. He will devote his entire time to the completion of his work toward a Master's Degree at the University of Chicago. A committee will keep the pulpit filled with excellent preachers until a new pastor is called. Residents of Auburn Park who do not regularly attend any church are invited to its services. Children are always welcome and made to feel they are among friends in the Sunday school. The church is located at the corner of 77th St. and Normal Ave. and is a federation of the Congregational and Baptist churches.

Preparing Parcels for Mailing

Postmaster Carlile has issued a valuable circular on the proper preparation of parcels for mailing that should be in the hands of every one. Over a million parcels a day are mailed in Chicago and many of them are badly packed, wrapped or misdirected and consequently go astray or are ruined. Ask for this little folder at the postoffice and keep it handy in the house.

Christmas Suggestions

In these days of necessary economies, when all are seeking to avoid the "H. C. L." there is no place it can better be observed than in the making of presents at the Holiday time, of PRACTICAL and USEFUL ARTICLES. Long after the tinsel attractions of the pretty but useless article has gone, the useful article will remain and the giver be remembered with gratitude. We have stocked up for this season with this idea in view, and offer the following practical suggestions.

THRIFT CHAIRMEN APPOINTED BY ILLINOIS CLUB WOMEN

Mrs. Frederick A. Dow Hears Favorably From All but Eight Districts in the State.

Mrs. Frederick A. Dow, who recently undertook the task of lining up the 60,000 women of the Illinois Federated Clubs for the Government savings campaign, has received favorable reports from most of the club districts on the progress of the organization work.

Mrs. Dow asked the presidents of the twenty-five club districts in Illinois to appoint thrift chairmen. She has heard from all but eight districts.

The chairmen appointed are: First, Mrs. C. D. Stone; Second, Mrs. Howard Ames; Third, Mrs. H. H. Day; Sixth, Mrs. W. J. Benson; Eighth, Mrs. Inez Deach; Ninth, Mrs. W. G. Cook; Tenth, Miss Fannie Whiting, Chicago; Twelfth, Mrs. Minnie Cofield, Tonica; Thirteenth, Mrs. Adolph Eichlor, Dixon; Fourteenth, Mrs. Flo Ervin, Biggsville; Fifteenth, Mrs. R. D. McCracken, Knoxville; Seventeenth, Miss Roxanna Hill, Pontiac; Eighteenth, Mrs. J. R. Hanlon, Grant Park; Twenty-first, Mrs. C. S. Mahan, Palmyra; Twenty-second, Mrs. Peter Johnson, Collinsville; Twenty-third, Mrs. Harry Farson, Salem; Twenty-fifth, Mrs. E. E. Jacobs, West Frankfort.

"Because the war is over many people think all movements started during the great world conflict are now 'dead issues,'" said Mrs. Dow. "But that is not true of the savings campaign of the government, and the women can play a very vital part in making this a great success, not only to help finance the government but to help themselves and the community in which they live. Some women have an idea that this campaign is only a man's affair. They are mistaken. There is no better channel to make thrift a permanent habit than the home, and it is through the women the home can be reached. The job of making this campaign a success is just as much a woman's as a man's."

NEW SAVINGS CERTIFICATES CALLED MARVEL OF FINANCE

U. S. "Baby Bonds" of $100 and $1,000 Denominations Are Becoming Popular Investment.

Reports from all parts of the Seventh district show the increasing popularity of the new $100 and $1,000 Treasury Savings certificates. They are virtually "baby bonds" and their investment value is readily seen. Both banks and individuals are investing in this new form of government security. Secretary of the Treasury Glass has characterized these certificates as "the marvel of finance," and Albert Boswell, manager of sales for the Seventh District War Savings organization, has pointed out six reasons why this term of the secretary of the treasury fits them. The reasons are:

1. They carry valuable tax-exemption privileges.
2. They cannot depreciate in value, not being subject to market fluctuations.
3. They are a liquid investment, redeemable for cash on ten days' notice.
4. They yield a substantial income, actually more than 4¼ per cent.
5. They are short term, maturing January 1, 1924.
6. They represent absolute safety as obligations of the United States government.

The $100 certificates may be purchased at post offices of the first and second class and at banks; $1,000 certificates may be obtained through banks or trust companies and certificates of either denomination may be ordered direct from the War Savings district headquarters, 105 West Monroe street, Chicago, Ill.

The new certificates are issued only in registered form with the name of the owner written in at the time of the purchase. The registration records are kept in Washington and this feature is a protection to the investor.

War Savings certificates filled with twenty War Savings stamps, series of 1919, may be exchanged for Treasury Savings certificates in denominations of $100, and ten such War Savings certificates may be exchanged for a $1,000 Treasury Savings certificate. The price of the $100 certificate in November is $84.40. The increase in cost is 20 cents each month. The $1,000 certificate in November costs $844. The price of this denomination increases $2 a month.

—BUY ONLY WHAT YOU NEED—

$700,000,000 IN FOOD WASTED.

The National Association of Waste Material Dealers estimates that Americans throw away $700,000,000 worth of food each year. If only one ounce of food is wasted or spoiled in each of the 20,000,000 homes in America, the total loss is 1,300,000 pounds a day. As much coal is wasted annually as all the mines of the country could produce in two weeks.

MAKE MONEY WORK FOR YOU.

An investment of $100 in Liberty Bonds increases to $150 in about 11 years, if interest is reinvested as received at 4 per cent, interest compounded quarterly. War Savings Stamps pay this rate, beginning the day purchased. Make your money work for you.

Mutt and Jeff in a New Play

You'll remember that our heores, Mutt and Jeff, succeeded in properly opening the new canal at "Panama," looked over the "Mexican" situation attended "College" celebrated their Wedding' repenting their rash act by being "Discovered," tried their luck in the 'Woolly West" and now to the 'Land of Dreams'.

"Mutt and Jeff's Dreams" is the title of the new vehicle upon which they will ride to another tremendous success this season. Gus Hill has made a lavish production, even more elaborate than any of his former productions under the Mutt and Jeff standard. The funniest ever is the promise and judging from reports from other cities, that promise is well kept. Each successive season finds an entirely new offering which includes book, music, songs, scenery, costumes, and last, but not least, pretty girls. "Mutt and Jeff" will never grow old. One never gets tired of laughing. Their adventures in "Dream Land" is one round of hilarious laughter tempered with an unusually pretty bunch of choristers who can sing and dance. Don't get the idea that "Mutt and Jeff" is old or deteriorating. It is the one musical comedy that has weathered all theatrical storms and will live for years innumerable. It's a play for the entire family without a line or a situation that will bring the blush to the cheeks of young or old.

"Mutt and Jeff's Dream" will be the offering at the National Theatre for one week, commencing Sunday matinee, Dec. 7th. Seats now selling for the engagement.

"The Miracle Man" Absorbing and Highly Dramatic

"Miracle Man," 2.00 to 11 30 p. m. continuous.

Tulane Theatre—Halsted at 61st St. F. Z. Lewis, Manager

A motion picture that will thrill audiences wherever it is shown, not only because of its absorbing story, but because of its powerful heart appeal, is "The Miracle Man," a new Paramount-Artcraft feature, which has been booked at the Tulane Theatre, 6108 Halsted St., four days, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th. The story deals with a notorious band of crooks operating in New York's Chinatown, who learn of an ancient patriarch living out in the country and possessing the power to heal the sick and make whole the crippled. With the idea of making money out of his operations, Tom Burke and his pals go to the deaf and blind healer. Then commences a transformation in these crooks, that makes one of the most fascinating stories of all time. The chief roles are finely interpreted by Thomas Meighan, Elinor Fair, Betty Compson and others of similar calibre.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The wonderful success of the Marlowe Hoppodrome this season is the marvel in the picture and vaudeville world. The excellence of the programs and their variety and merit attracts large audiences every time the doors are opened. "Doc" White has made good by giving the people their money's worth and providing them with entertainment that they like and enjoy. Most of humanity grows tired of one class of amusement as well as of one diet and to provide for this the Marlowe books a line of attractions varied in character but universally good in merit. They offer a big triple program daily, good pictures, the best features of filmdom, and in addition the cleverest and best in vaudeville that is clean and attractive.

Mondays, as a special, the Marlowe offers a hat contest, the audience voting for the most attractive lady donning the latest confection in millinery and the lady wears the hat home Tuesdays, besides the vaudeville acts they offer the professional song revue and the thrilling pictures. Wednesday comes the Jim Corbett pictures in serial, the most thrilling ever produced depicting the champion as "The Midnight Man," and in addition the best musical comedy or acts of vaudeville that are fully up to the Marlowe standard. Thursday is another big vaudeville night with good pictures, and Friday comes the all star professional vaudeville revue of seven or more acts, as well as the pictures. Saturday and Sunday are gala days at the Marlowe; in addition to great feature first run pictures they offer at least six big vaudeville acts.

The Marlowe always leads and assures every visitor a good show, come when they may. Be one of the crowd and patronize the real show.

Harvard

Speaking of music, have you heard the new orchestra at the Harvard? All the world loves music and good music is a rare quantity, but at the Harvard one needs only to hear their orchestra once to convince them that they have the genuine. "Music hath charms," so if you have a longing for something soothing it will pay you in big dividends to visit the Harvard some evening or matinee. A word to the wise, etc.

Last chance today, Friday, Dec. 5th, matinee and night. The season's biggest screen event. Cecil B. DeMille's stupendous attraction, "Male and Female," founded on J. M. Barrie's famous play, "The Admirable Crichton." Adapted for the screen by Jeanie MacPherson. A romance that searches deep into human hearts. A picture poignant, powerful, tremendous in its scope, superb in its artistry—destined to rank as a thrilling climax to "Old Wives for New," "Don't Change Your Husband," "For Better, for Worse." Humor, pathos, colorful drama enacted by hundreds of players, vivid contrasts, dazzling pageantry with an all-star group of principals, including Thomas Meighan, Gloria Swanson, Theodore Roberts, Lila Lee, Raymond Hatton, Tully Marshall and hundreds of other players. A picture that seizes the creatures of a "misfit civilization," strips them of their false fronts and handicaps, flings them down in a land

Ince presents Douglas Maclean and Doris May in the cleverest comedy of the screen, "Twenty-Three and a Half Hours' Leave," the smashing picturization of Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous story in the Saturday Evening Post. If you want to see the most entertaining photoplay ever screened, don't miss this one. Come and have the laugh of your life.

Tuesday, Dec. 9th, matinee and night, the Madonna of the screen, Alice Joyce, in "The Vengeance of Durand," adapted from Rex Beach's powerful story. Jealousy wrecks the lives of millions of people each year. It is subtle, crafty and deadly. Rex Beach in one of the most powerful stories ever written presents the follies and sufferings caused by jealous demons. It is a story that holds you tense; it charms! it entertains; it pleases you. You just can't help but like it. You would like to see it again and again, because it is a page from human life. It tells the story of many people you know and therefore it grips your interest to the end.

E. A. R. THEATRE — Concert Orchestra

Your pretty little neighborhood photo playhouse, the E. A. R. has been making big and history making strides in the giving their patrons the best photoplays that money can purchase. To prove this statement read the following program:

Friday and Saturday, Dec. 5th and 6th. Something extraordinary—two shows in one. Jesse L. Lasky presents Cecil B. DeMille's production, "Male and Female," a Paramount-Artcraft picture. All-star cast headed by Thos. Meighan, star of "Miracle Man." "Male and Female" is a picture of contrasts—contrasting the artificial and luxurious life of titled Londoners with the primitive living on the desert Island; contrasting the values of men, as servant becomes master and master becomes servant; contrasting the modern, primitive story of the love between man and woman with the Babylonian love story of the King of Babylon and his Christian slave. Mack Sennett comedy, "Salome vs. Shenandoah," featuring Ben Turpin, Chester Conklin and Phyllis Hauer.

Sunday, Dec. 7th, Jack Pickford in a drama of boyhood days with their he do but become her "uncle" and nnance her into love and society? Some little "flier," you'll say!

Wednesday, Dec. 10th, Enid Bennett in "What Every Woman Learns." The story of a girl who lived for pleasure and married a parlor clown. Then the sad awakening—the "other man," the greater love, the burning struggle that gives this girl a soul. A picture that goes to the heart of love and marriage and meets the problem with open eyes. Milton Sills, Theodore Roberts and Irving Cummings in the big supporting cast. Enid Bennett in a vivid emotional role that is different from any other she has played.

Lillian Gish in
D.W. GRIFFITH'S

"Broken Blossoms" Thursday and Friday, Dec. 11th and 12th

Two extra special eventful days that no one can or should miss. Thursday and Friday, Dec. 11th and 12th, D. W. Griffith's great master production, a marvel of filmdom, "Broken Blossoms," featuring Lillian Gish, who needs no introduction to movie fans. In D. W. Griffith's masterpiece, "Broken Blossoms," there are some striking scenes showing the picturesque China that the poet Cheng Huan knew before he left the land of plum blossoms to settle down in the muck of Pennyfields and the dock district of London's East End. To understand something of the truth of such a contrast as this is necessary to comprehend at their fullest artistic value the nuances of "Broken Blossoms" and the striking moral lessons this work of art is intended to convey. And, the inclusion of these scenes of Chinese childhood with their subtle suggestions of Oriental happiness is only another proof of the keen sense of artistic values that characterize every piece of photoplay drama that D. W. Griffith has done.

joys and sorrows, "In Wrong." This is a story that picturizes your own boyhood and girlhood days, the dream of love and heroic deeds. Live it all over once more. The tears will come into your eyes, but you will have to laugh. 'Member when you were a kid and the boys tied your clothes when you were in swimmin', so that you got home late, and though you thought you were growed up, your ma' licked you? You have been in wrong lots of times, now haven't you? That's the reason you will enjoy this picture. Also Jas. Corbett in "The Midnight Man" at the matinee only.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

A welcome will be accorded to the "Parisian Flirts" at the Englewood Theatre, week starting Sunday matinee, Dec. 7th. Charles Robinson, the well known comedian, will head this merry attraction. Every season Robinson brings in a brand new show, and this time there is no exception to the rule. Plenty of local color is added to the two-act book that will create screams of laughter. Together with popular melodies, a wealth of pretty costumes and a car load of scenery and electrical effects. A large cast of capable players will make two hours and a half of solid enjoyment, not overlooking a chorus of the prettiest high steppers that have been picked from the garden of Danceland. Oh, Boy! Oh, Joy will be the slogan after seeing this burlesque wonder show. Matinees daily.

"From Tours to Chateau Thierry and Belleau Woods"

A rare treat awaits those who attend Dr. R. A. White's lecture next Sunday evening at the People's Liberal Church, when he will deliver his latest illustrated lecture under the above heading. Dr. White knows all of this country from having lived in it long before the war and visited it while the war was in progress and after the war, hence is able to speak with familiarity gained by these experiences and added to his keenness of observation and well known eloquence and ability to bring a subject before his hearers so that they live with him the scenes he takes them to. In his recent trip abroad he visited Tours and the battles in which so many of our American heroes offered the supreme sacrifice, and "saved the world" by their intrepid daring, gallantry and bravery, and none is better able to do them justice than is Dr. White, whose patriotic life began in the historical cradle of our nation in Plymouth. Don't miss Sunday night's lecture.

Christian Science Lecture

A free lecture on Christian Science will be given at Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, Harvard Ave. and West Marquette Rd., on Monday evening, December 8th, at 8:00 o'clock. The lecture will be delivered by Mrs. Blanche K. Corby, C. S. B., of Los Angeles, Cal., who is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The public is cordially invited to attend this lecture.

Rubber Easy to Cultivate.

After four or five years of semi-cultivation a rubber plantation requires practically no care, except to see from time to time that other trees which may have gotten a start, are cut out. The yield of rubber gum begins about the seventh year under favorable conditions, and continues thereafter indefinitely.

Dr. Bohn at the Sunday Evening Club

Next Sunday evening, at the Englewood Sunday Evening Club, the noted author, investigator and lecturer Dr. Frank Bohn, will deliver his newest lecture on "The Bible, Church and Labor Problem." This means a rare treat from an eminent authority.

Dr. Bohn has made it his business in life to understand America. He has studied two sets of facts in two totally different ways. In a half dozen Universities and in the great libraries of our Eastern Cities he has studied the social history of our country in the sources; then, by living among our people in every section of our country, by mixing with them at their work and breaking bread with them in their homes, he has seen and studied the new America in process of making.

The choir under the efficient directorship of Mr. Glenwood Preble will be assisted by Dwight Edrus Cook, the well known tenor, and the musical program will be especially fine.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB OF ST. ANNE'S PARISH GIVE MINSTREL

One of the largest and most elaborate minstrel shows that ever graced a Chicago stage is now in full swing at St. Anne's Auditorium 55th and La Salle Sts. The show is given by the Young Men's Club of the parish and is staged and directed by the able Mr. John Cussen, president of the club. In the cast, which numbers one hundred, are many notable stars in amateur theatricals. Come and enjoy a laugh a minute. Time—Sunday, Nov. 30th, Tuesday and Wednesday Dec. 2nd and 3rd. Dr. Gilkey's Address

Last Wednesday morning, Dr Gilkey of Woodlawn addressed the assembly of Juniors and Seniors in the Junior Hall. His subject was "Thistleseeds," and he spoke of the many warnings and sign posts in life which every student must observe in order to reach the top of the ladder of success. This is the second excellent address to the pupils of Englewood High School and we sincerely hope that he will visit us again.

Thanksgiving Offering

An offering authorized by the Board of Education was taken last Wednesday for the Children's Aid Society. Every cent of the money contributed by the school children is used by the Society to provide clothes and shoes for children who are unable to attend the public schools because of insufficient clothing. The total amount received from the pupils of Englewood High School was $179.15. Rooms deserving special mention are those of Miss Taylor and Miss Houck which gave $10.25 and $10.00 respectively.
